Creating Clinical Sustainability

Creating Clinician Buy-In Overcoming Clinician Resistance

- ▶ Mindset: Telehealth is a Clinical Tool, a care-delivery modality wielded by informed clinicians to provide the best access to care
- ▶ Most clinicians
 - have never been formally trained in creating a great virtual presence or conducting virtual physical exams
 - are concerned they'll look stupid if something were not to work
 - have had bad experiences with video visits during Covid, leading to phone visits
 - have not developed clinical guidelines for appropriate telehealth

⇒ Increasing telehealth adoption requires change management
